

Juditha (Jette) Löwenstein, née Weil
Deported to Riga in 1941.

Juditha was born in Randegg, Constance, on December 8th 1882. Her parents were Berta Ullmann and Wilhelm Weil from Randegg.

She married Julius Löwenstein, a trader from Rexingen. They lived in 102 Brühlstrasse in Rexingen, today 22 Freudenstädter Strasse. Their son Siegfried was born on April 23rd 1913. Julius Löwenstein was a fusilier in World War I and was wounded. He died in 1925 when Siegfried was twelve years old.

Siegfried later moved to Frankfurt. In 1944 he was deported from Holland to Auschwitz where he was murdered.

Siegfried Löwenstein, son of Juditha and Julius Löwenstein.

Source: www.communityjoodsmonument.nl/page/1514/en

Juditha Löwenstein sold herbs but had to cease trading in 1939. She was deported to Riga with her sister-in-law, Gertrud Pollack.

Juditha married into this parental home of Julius Löwenstein.