

Isak and Selma Schwarz, née Gideon
Deported to Theresienstadt in 1942.

Selma Gideon was born in Rexingen on January 13th 1877. Her parents were Johanna Blumenthal from Wankheim and Jakob Gideon the 'Kaiser' innkeeper in Rexingen. She married Isak Schwarz, born on February 16th 1872. He was the son of Judith Löwengart and Simon Schwarz.

Selma and Isak had two children: Siegfried, born in 1903, and Rosa, born in 1910. Both children emigrated to the USA. Isak and Selma were deported to Theresienstadt in 1942. Isak's brother, Rubin Schwarz who was married in Laupheim, was also deported to Theresienstadt. Rubin died there on February 20th 1943.

October 9th 1943 was quoted as the date of death of Selma and Isak.

Wir haben die traurige Nachricht erhalten, dass unsere geliebten Eltern, Schwie-gereltern und Grosseltern ISAAK SCHWARZ u.
SELMA SCHWARZ
geb. Gideon
(fr. Rexingen, Wrttb.)
in Theresienstadt gestorben
sind.
Im Namen der Hinterbliebenen:
Siegfried u. Erna Schwarz
geb. Stern
4017 Kathland Avenue
Baltimore, Md.
Morris und Rosel Kahn
geb. Schwarz
5111 Chalgrove Ave.
Baltimore, Md.
und 2 Enkelkinder

Isak's and Selma's obituary which appeared in the Jewish emigrants' German- language newspaper 'Aufbau' in the USA on September 21st 1945.